SUV with a lovely interior/ exterior, my only big issue with the escape is the power when compared with its fuel economy. sure its no prius or hummer, but when a friends 5.7 L hemi in his truck gets better mileage and more power, maybe its not the greatest engine.

Other than a few minor

this car has been 100

Although it is not a

There is a check engine light on and the car runs a little rough. Our mechanic says the code indicates it needs a tune up and we do not want to invest the $350 - $400 the mechanic says it will take.
