It was about saving aggro, and conserving energy. And, appropriately, it was about The 2nd Law: an album titled after and thematically influenced by the Second Law of Thermodynamics, which concerns the inevitable wasting of energy within a closed system. It was about letting themselves go and enjoying themselves. Muse, after all, had earned it.

The 2nd Law is in tiepiese Muse style vol twists en turns. Elke song op die album klink anders. "Supremacy" voel asof dit geskryf is as 'n James Bond title track. "Madness" (video hier onder) het my dadelik laat dink aan Queen, die gitar solo se klank het 'n lekker Brian May feel daaraan. En deur al hierdie songs wat uniek en ...
