Poems And Prose Gerard Manley

Before this book, I had not been exposed to the poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins. I will say very little on the collection of prose that makes up this book. That collection is largely made up of letters, and while interesting to anyone interested in learning more about the great poet, Hopkins, the letters in and of themselves are, in my opinion, rather forgettable on their own merit.

Poems and Prose by Gerard Manley Hopkins - Goodreads

I ordered a paperback called "Gerard Manley Hopkins: Poems and prose, selected and edited by W. H. Gardner, Penguin Books, 1953. I particularly wanted a new copy of this paperback since it is a much beloved book and it is falling apart from heavy use when I was in a nineteenth century English Literature class at Hunter College.
